This artwork is called "Pick a side" it shows two very different sides. One side showing peace, prosperity, happiness and love, while the other side shows the result of all the bad stuff happening all over the world and how its affecting us, darkness, sadness and pollution. It also shows us what we can do if we want to save the world before its too late.

What you can do to help!

start a garden, use electricity, stop fossil fuels, dont smoke, care for the earth and more!
