Peace with Creation

I drew a big tree with colourful flowers surrounding it symbols nature and life. Trees and flowers are part of what God made so respecting nature shows we care about creation. If we look after the planet it can be so lovely and beautiful. We should all look after the world God created not destroying it so growing a garden or planting flowers can be making the world better or just looking after a tree in your front garden. So that's why I drew this picture.
