

Cara Morabito 7.3

In my drawing I have an image of what the Earth looks like now and what it could look like if we were stewards of creation. The Laudato Si quote I chose was "The earth, our home, is beginning to look more and more like an immense pile of filth." — Laudato Si', §21. The Genesis quote I chose was "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds in the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth," These passages connect to my drawing because they remind us that we are not doing a good job in looking after the earth like we are supposed to be doing. This connects to our college theme of hope because if we have hope and try hard enough we can hopefully have a healthy earth again.

In my drawing I have an image of what the Earth looks like now and what it could look like if we were stewards of creation. The Laudato Si quote I chose was “The earth, our home, is beginning to look more and more like an immense pile of filth.”

— Laudato Si', §21. The Genesis quote I chose was “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds in the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth,” These passages connect to my drawing because they remind us that we are not doing a good job in looking after the earth like we are supposed to be doing. This connects to our college theme of hope because if we have hope and try hard enough we can hopefully have a healthy earth again.