

How can we practise being at peace with creation?

I chose the following Laudato Si quote

‘The earth was here before us and has been given to us’

My art reflects the creation of Earth by God, emphasising our responsibility to protect it. It features contrasting images, like polluted areas and pristine landscapes. Caring for our planet is tied to hope, as it inspires action and a collective commitment to preserve our shared home for all living beings.

[illegible]