What does peace with creation look like to you? Peace with creation looks to me when there is minimum pollution and war. The grass is green. The sky is blue and everyone is respected no matter their culture or how much money they have.

“ The Earth was here before us and it has been given to us”. My piece connects to this quote in the way I have shown the well-being of the Earth and the world being cared for. In my art piece, I demonstrated my understanding of how it looks when the world is polluted, not looked after, and taken for granted. Then, I showed how the world should look when it is cared for—planting new trees, building community, and living in peace. I included all these examples to show that our world is being destroyed and we need to stop the things causing pollution. My art piece connects to the Saint Columba's College theme of Hope because of the way I have shown the world is turning out to be. My art piece also connects to the Catholic Social Teaching of stewardship because I have shown the well-being of the Earth being cared for and looked after.
