

"Humanity is called to recognize the need for change of lifestyle, production, and consumption, in order to combat this warming."

— Pope Francis

