

WHAT DOES PEACE WITH CREATION LOOK LIKE TO YOU?

A Moment Of Quiet

By Tess Barrett

Soft rays of moonlight peek through the trees,
My face caressed by the gentle breeze.
A melodious song begins to play as the creatures chirp and branches sway.

Creation's beauty shines so bright especially in the glow of night.
The moon shines down as I pray sitting in creation the intended way.

I take some time to leave the bustle of cars and noise and city hustle
A moment away to reconnect
I spend time with God and begin to reflect.

I gaze upon the stars so high the breathtaking twinkle in the sky and realise the might of our lord and the opportunities that I haven't yet explored
