This drawing shows that we are given God's creation - the world and that we are given trust and stewardship to follow in the path of what He wanted us to do. The peace stands for the freedom of being able to do something without being disturbed. The holy trinity meaning: (the Holy Trinity consists of the Father God, the Son Jesus, and the Holy Spirit.) - Study.com. The bread, representing the Body of Christ, and candles symbolising the Light of Christ and the Holy Spirit. Together, these symbols show how faith calls us to live with care, gratitude, responsibility, and respect for gratitude.
